DETAILED ACTION

1. A telephone call was made to William E. Vaughan on December 3rd, 2004 to request an examiner's amendment in order to place the application in condition for allowance, but did not result in an authorization being granted.

2. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

3. The disclosure is objected to because it contains an embedded hyperlink and/or other form of browser-executable code. Applicant is required to delete the embedded hyperlink and/or other form of browser-executable code. See MPEP § 608.01.

a. On page 3, lines 15 and 14 the hyperlink (Internet page: <http://www.ietf.org/internet-draft/draft-nichols-dsopdef-00.txt>) should be deleted.

b. On page 4 lines 4 and 5 the hyperlink (Internet page: <http://www.ietf.org/internet-draft/draft-ietf-diffserv-arch-00.txt>) should be deleted.

c. On page 4 lines 8 and 9 the hyperlink (Internet page: <http://www.ietf.org/internet-draft/draft-ietf-diffserv-framework-01.txt>) should be deleted.

4. Claim 8 is objected to because of the following informality: On page 12 line 30 the last word "a" should be changed to "the". Appropriate correction is required.

Art Unit: 2666

5. Claims 9-14 are objected to because of the following informalities: The above-mentioned claims are dependent on either independent claim 8 or dependent claim 9; therefore, they must begin with "The" instead of "A".

Appropriate correction is required.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 8-14 are allowed.

7. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 8 is allowable over the prior art of record since the cited references taken individually or in combination fail to particularly disclose establishing, via at least one of the at least one network node and at least one intermediate node, and during transmission of the data packets, a quality of the transmission based on acknowledgements indicating a quality grade, and comparing the quality of the transmission with a quality grade demanded by the data service; and assigning the data packets associated with the data service, depending on a result of the comparison, to another quality class of which the quality grade demanded by the data service is expected.

It is noted that the closest prior art, McCloghrie et al. (US Patent 6286052 B1) shows a network with an end station connected to a host/server through intermediate devices in which data packets with different types of data services are assigned at the start of transmission, to a quality class whereupon the data packets are handled with the intermediate nodes which forward the data packets (column 7 lines 38-51 in particular and also column 6 lines 59-67 and column 7 lines 1-37). However, McCloghire fails to disclose or render obvious the above underlined limitations as claimed.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

- a. McCloghrie et al. (US Patent 6286052 B1) discloses a system within a computer network that identifies specific traffic flows and applies policy and service treatments upon the traffic flows.
- b. Weberhofer (US Patent 6014384) discloses a method for controlling data traffic in an ATM network in which each node in the network processes the cells separately based on the quality of service class which is predefined.
- c. Goldszmidt et al. (US Patent 6308216 B1) discloses routing apparatus which applies a routing policy on a packet based on the quality of service associated with the transaction.
- d. Bertin et al. (US Patent 5940372) discloses a process for selecting an optimal path in a packet switching network for transmission without bandwidth allocation.
- e. Vaid et al. (US Patent 6078953) discloses a method for controlling quality of service within a network of computers.

Art Unit: 2666

f. Haddock et al. (US Patent 6678248 B1) discloses a mechanism for managing, monitoring and prioritizing traffic within a network to achieve quality of service.
